Biography

Embark on a musical odyssey with Ana & Gene—the Global Music Awards and European International Music Awards winners, and 2025 Josie Music Awards and ISSA awards nominees—emerging from the vibrant city of Chicago, Illinois, USA. Gene Roberts, a pop icon hailing from New York City, with a glittering history of gold-certified hits, crossed paths with the esteemed researcher and sultry singer-songwriter, Anastacia Bella, amidst the chaos of the Covid-19 pandemic in 2020. What unfolded was a serendipitous collaboration that would redefine the Chicago music scene.

Anastacia Bella's voice, a captivating blend of power, edge, sweetness, and sultriness, intertwines seamlessly with Gene Roberts' commanding tenor and falsetto vocals. Together, they embarked on a groundbreaking musical venture, producing genre-defying, fusing sounds that merge Pop, Rock, Modern Country, Reggae and with a hint of Soul. Each song that they craft is uniquely fused with two genres or more. Their artistry is highlighted by chart-topping hits in 2024, like "Narcissistic You"—a catchy, rocking Pop Rock Anthem which reached number 1 on the Indie Charts and number 16 on the World Indie Top 100 Singles Chart via worldwide radio play. Also, "Keep on Giving You Love," a vibrant, rocking, Tropical Pop, Modern Country, and Rock Anthem, hit number 1 on the Euro Indie Charts as well. Their sounds are as exhilarating as they are unforgettable.

Their music, crafted with live elements exclusively, promises an electrifying live experience that mirrors the sheer magic of their studio recordings. With a background in both music and film, Ana & Gene have mastered the art of creating captivating tunes tailored for radio, television, commercials, films, and all social media platforms. Their debut EP, "Uh-Oh Who Do You Love," released in January, 2024, under the independent label Eugana Records LLC, is a testament to their musical prowess and boundless creativity. Along with their hit single, "Keep On Giving You Love," released in August of 2024 under Eugana Records LLC. They have recently released two new Social Impact songs in May of 2026. Called "I Feel Alive So Alive" and it's Pop Rock with a bit of Modern Country Rock. "See Me Smile" is Pop Punk Rock with a bit of Modern Country Rock as well. You can listen to them on the new top releases page.

You will also see them teamed up with the immensely talented band "The Scene." Ana & Gene are primed to captivate audiences near and far with their electrifying performances. Prepare to be dazzled, entertained, and enlightened by the unparalleled artistry of Ana & Gene - a duo destined to leave an indelible mark on the music industry.
